I AM UNDERWAY as the new President and Chief Executive Officer of The Dressage Foundation, a position I proudly accepted effective September 1, 2008. The Dressage Foundation's Board of Directors met in Lincoln, Nebraska in September of 2008, to discuss our vision, and how best to transform our Dressage Dreams into Action. We plan some exciting programs to improve the teaching of dressage, and to help riders in all disciplines learn how to use basic dressage skills. We are launching a Working-Capital Campaign, to fortify the Foundation's financial future. I invite you to join us in 2009, as we mount up and ride forth to spread the dressage gospel. I congratulate all of those who were selected to receive financial help from The Dressage Foundation in 2008, and thank those who shared their donation dollars to make it all possible. I salute our volunteers who are unpaid, not because they are worthless, but because they are priceless. I commend John and Lynn Boomer whose hard work during these past ten of their "retirement" years has brought the Foundation to its present position of prominence in our sport, and Lowell Boomer for his vision in founding it twenty years ago. Givers and Receivers, Benefactors and Beneficiaries, make the business of The Dressage Foundation, simply stated, "HELP!"

Lendon Gray

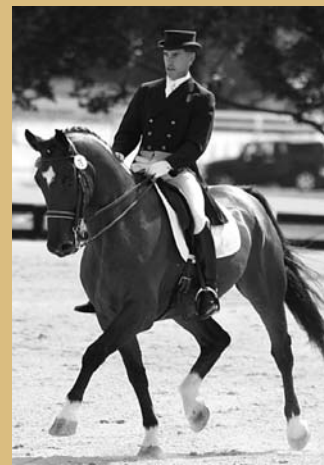

Lendon Gray, President and CEO of The Dressage Foundation, presents The Amanda Ward Legacy Fund award of $1,000 to Kassandra Barteau and Gabriella, as the highest scoring Jr/YR at Third Level and above at the New England Dressage Association (NEDA) 2008 Fall Festival.

Two New High Performance Grants Debut in 2009 – $25,000 Each!

Anne L. Barlow Ramsay Grant $25,000

The purpose of this grant is to showcase talented American-bred horses ridden by United States Citizens, by providing money to train and compete in Europe. James Koford (NC) and his Dutch Warmblood, Rhett, have garnered this grant, and will be training in 2009 with Conrad Schumacher in Germany, and competing in shows in Holland, Germany, Belgium, and the Czech Republic. Dr. Ramsay has innovatively established this annual grant so that funding will be available annually for many years into the future.

James Koford and Rhett

Carol Lavell Advanced Dressage Prize $25,000

The purpose of this prize, established at The Dressage Foundation, is to provide financial assistance for coaching and training to a talented, committed, qualified rider whose plan is to reach and excel at the elite international standards of high performance Dressage. Jan Brons of Wellington, Florida, is the 2009 winner of the $25,000 Carol Lavell Advanced Dressage Prize.

Our Volunteers...

VITAL AND VALUED

The Dressage Foundation is so proud and appreciative of its cadre of volunteers.

They make it possible for our work to get done, and with a high level of quality.

They perform a myriad of tasks: serve on our governance team, Board committees, select the recipients for Foundation grants and scholarships, write for us, represent us at public activities, distribute our literature at equestrian events nationwide, chaperone our Olympic Dream Young Riders to Europe, fund raise – and ever so much more. Their work is especially vital and valued because they supplement the Foundation's small administrative staff.

Here they are – listed below – help us salute them with thanks and a public pat on the back!
