

Two New High Performance Grants Debut in 2009 – $25,000 Each!

James Koford and Rhett

Anne L. Barlow Ramsay Grant $25,000

The purpose of this grant is to showcase talented American-bred horses ridden by United States Citizens, by providing money to train and compete in Europe. James Koford (NC) and his Dutch Warmblood, Rhett, have garnered this grant, and will be training in 2009 with Michael Klimke in Germany, and competing in European shows. Dr. Ramsay has innovatively established this annual grant so that funding will be available annually for many years into the future.

Carol Lavell Advanced Dressage Prize $25,000

The purpose of this prize, established at The Dressage Foundation, is to provide financial assistance for coaching and training to a talented, committed, qualified rider whose plan is to reach and excel at the elite international standards of high performance Dressage. Jan Brons of Wellington, Florida, is the 2009 winner of the $25,000 Carol Lavell Advanced Dressage Prize.

Jan Brons

Anne Ramsay and Fridjoff
on their Century Club ride

Caring and Sharing...

*It takes benefactors like Anne Ramsay and Carol Lavell and to help beneficiaries like James Koford and Jan Brons.
We salute them and thank them!*

THE DRESSAGE FOUNDATION
Wells Fargo Center, Suite 732
1248 'O' Street
Lincoln, NE 68508

www.dressagefoundation.org

Olympian Carol Lavell
on Gifted

*To see all of the benefactors and beneficiaries from 2008, download your own copy, or ask The Dressage Foundation to mail
you a printed copy.*

